

Reading Our Bible Together in 2020

Sermon Series

A few days ago I saw a church sign that said, “Tweet others as you would like to be tweeted.” That got me to thinking about the Sermon on the Mount, and then about the Sermon on the Plain. Preachers love sermon series, and I completely understand that. The easy part of preaching or teaching is standing up in front of the congregation or the class and delivering the message. The hard part is coming up with an idea for the message! In a good sermon series, one idea will last for weeks. This episode of Reading our Bible Together will look at some of the sermons preached long ago by Moses, Jesus, Peter, Paul, and others, and we’ll see that these sermons still have important messages for us today.

“Reading Our Bible Together” originated in 2007 at St. John’s United Methodist Church in Albuquerque and is our largest continuing Bible study. A scripture passage and a brief study tip are distributed to most participants by email five days a week. We each read at a time and place of our own choosing. Answers to reader questions and other supplements occasionally come out on Saturdays. To receive daily study tips by email, write or call Regina Hunter at drhunter@nmia.com or 294-2877.

St. John’s makes the study available to those outside our walls through the daily emails and an archive of study tips from prior years at www.daily-bible-study-tips.com.
